Rules on occasional parties in PUMS Dormitories

1. According to PUMS Dormitory Regulations occasional parties may be organized with the agreement of roommates and neighbors. It is not allowed to organize parties outside dormitory rooms, that is in common areas inside dormitory building as well as outside dormitory buildings.

2. According to par. VII of the School Regulations for English Programs’ Students alcohol is banned at all times and under all circumstances in the University dormitory.

3. Only one party – applications will be considered according to the first-come-first-served rule – may take place on the same floor on the same day in respective dormitory (Attachment No. 1 – Statement).

3. A party of 5 people or more needs to be reported on the provisions described in the Dormitory Regulations for students in the English Language Programs at the Poznan University of Medical Sciences (PUMS):
   3.1. Dormitory Administration must be notified 24 hours in advance and must grant permission for the gathering.
   3.2. A student organizing the party is required to submit a statement (specimen available at the office of respective dormitory administration and on the University website).
   3.3. The R.A.s on duty must also be notified of the gathering.

4. Up to 20 people are allowed to attend the party organized by one person.

5. A dormitory resident is permitted to have visitors provided that the visitors(s) present their identification documents to the porter whose duty it is to record the data included in these documents.

6. Common areas, such as the kitchen and the lounge, must be kept free and clear of dirty dishes, food, and other types of items. Tables, counters, and floors—if appropriate—must be cleaned after use so that they are left in acceptable condition for fellow residents.

7. Permission will be granted only if the resident having the party will take full responsibility for cleaning up and for any negative consequences arising from their party c (including any damages caused during the party).
